

Location

Lake Balaton

The ICEEEM06 conference will be hosted by the University of Pannonia, Veszprém, on the beautiful shores of Lake Balaton. Affectionally called the Hungarian Sea, Lake Balaton is the largest lake in Central Europe, being one of the foremost tourist destinations in the area.

Registration

The registration and extended abstract submission should be done no later than 7th of March, 2011, via website www.iceem.eu. Accepted abstracts (2 pages) will be published in a Book of Abstracts.

Selected papers by the International Scientific Committee will be published in special issue of Environmental Engineering and Management Journal (0.885 ISI Impact Factor).

All the Conference activities will be held in ENGLISH.

Fees

No registration fee is required!

The conference is co-financed by the TÁMOP-4.1.1.A - 10/1/KONV/2010-0006 Project. The maximum number of participants is limited to 100, so we encourage early registration. Further details will be available upon request

Foreword

The 6th edition of ICEEM adds a new dimension to its international character, for the first time being organized outside the borders of its home country, in the beautiful surroundings of Lake Balaton. This was possible thanks to the ever strengthening bilateral relations of its organizing institutions: the University of Pannonia Veszprém, Hungary and the Gheorghe Asachi University of Iasi, Romania, which developed the ICEEM concept.

Under the name of GREEN FUTURE, this edition of ICEEM proposes an insight into the future of environmental engineering and management technologies, practices and instruments and it strongly encourages contributions that focus on multidisciplinary and cross-sectorial approaches to tackling environmental issues. Furthermore, the ICEEM conference welcomes contributions of young and senior scientists, but at the same time it encourages practitioners and specialists in various environmental fields to add a more practical-oriented approach to the conference sessions.

We hope that the seminars, workshops, plenary sessions and side-events of ICEEM, will enhance multidisciplinary, international cooperation and effective communication of scientists, engineers and managers.
